Here at Iron Bridge University, the learning and the drinking never stop. Our faculty has been spending countless hours drinking, pouring, and drinking again, in their quest for the insight that the student body desires. The bottles are empty; the glasses sit ready, the only thing that remains are the classes.

Knowledge is good; knowledge with wine is even better!

Join our resident "Wine Guy" Vince as he continues his wine course designed to help guide your journey through the world of wine. Whether you are new to wine or an old pro, there is sure to be fun had by all. Plus stick around you just might learn something!
